Published: December 20, 2011

TAMPA, Florida. (December 20, 2011)
Whether you are looking to relieve muscle and joint pain, increase mobility and flexibility, reduce stress, get in better overall physical condition, detoxify your body, strengthen your immune system, or lose weight, come and experience the benefits of Hot Fitness Yoga. Whether you have been doing hot yoga for years or are new to the practice, you will love their studio! It is beautiful, clean, and spacious. They have a large staff of friendly, talented, and dedicated instructors, each bringing their own unique styles to their classes. With a large variety of classes to choose from, students can change up their routines to keep their practice fresh, fun, and challenging.

Working with the team at Hot Fitness Yoga, K.Tek created a new web design that portrays the mood of the practice and showcases the instructors' experience. The site includes a CMS, new interactive calendar, News Section, scrolling photo gallery and Google Map of their location.
